

Recruitment Consultant – Qualified Accountancy Division

Salary – £30,000 to £40,000 per annum + Uncapped, no threshold Bonus Structure

Hybrid Working (3 days in the Birmingham City Centre office, 2 from home)

Are you looking to earn significant remuneration? Do you want to work autonomously with like-minded professionals and be judged on your results rather than endless KPI's?

As a key member of the team, you will work on a "hot desk" managing the recruitment process for temporary, interim and permanent roles within the qualified/senior finance market.

Your role:

- Developing new and existing relationships with clients and candidates
- Providing clients with advice on recruitment and current market conditions
- Taking accurate job specs
- Writing and posting job adverts
- Screening potential candidates
- Providing CV and market advice to candidates
- Maintaining a strong compliant database
- Effectively matching candidates to your clients' roles
- Networking and attending events

Our ideal candidate will have:

- Experience within sales recruitment or accounting experience
- Commercial acumen
- The ability to build and maintain existing relationships and create new ones
- Strong sales and negotiation skills
- The ability to deal with multiple priorities at once
- A winning mentality
- An excellent work ethic and the drive and passion to succeed
- Excellent communication, organisational and interpersonal skills

What we can offer you:

- Hybrid working
- Market leading bonus scheme (from joining)
- Work life balance
- Great team culture with regular team drinks and socials
- Casual business dress when in the office
- Company mobile and laptop
- Income protection scheme (after qualifying period)

If this sounds like the opportunity and business for you then we want to hear from you! Please contact Kate Shakespeare in confidence on 07725 229289 or by email, kate.shakespeare@ggltd.co.uk

Greenwell Gleeson Limited is an equal opportunities employer.